

ST. JAMES'S PLACE WEALTHY, HEALTHY PLANET REPORT

RIISING MOTIVATION TO INVEST RESPONSIBLY

69% of Singaporeans are more motivated to invest responsibly since COVID-19.

64% say that Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) and sustainability are now factors in how they select investments.

72% for higher income bracket investors ($200,000 and above)

Importance of ESG factors in investment decisions according to age groups

59%

actively review sustainability reports and/or credentials before investing.

50%

of Singaporean investors say they are prepared to actively divest from companies that do not operate sustainably.

BARRIERS TO RESPONSIBLE INVESTMENT REMAIN

More than half of Singaporeans (54%) believe they need to compromise returns to invest responsibly.

Key barriers for investing more responsibly

ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES OF MOST CONCERN

Environment
37%

Social
33%

Governance
30%

Singaporeans prioritising environmental issues are most likely to:

Focus on ESG and sustainability factors when investing

Divest from a company not operating responsibly

Have an increasing interest in sustainable investments

Climate change, carbon emissions as well as responsible water and land use are most pressing for Singaporean investors.

67% do not believe or are unsure if corporations are doing enough to solve social issues in Asia, and 66% for environmental issues.

ST. JAMES'S PLACE WEALTHY, HEALTHY PLANET REPORT

RIISING MOTIVATION TO INVEST RESPONSIBLY

62% of Hongkongers are more motivated to invest responsibly since COVID-19.

61% say that Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) and sustainability are now factors in how they select investments.

71% for higher income bracket investors (HK$1,000,000 and above)

Importance of ESG factors in investment decisions according to age groups

69%

actively review sustainability reports and/or credentials before investing.

37%

of investors in Hong Kong say they are prepared to actively divest from companies that do not operate sustainably.

BARRIERS TO RESPONSIBLE INVESTMENT REMAIN

More than half of Hongkongers (55%) believe they need to compromise returns to invest responsibly.

Key barriers for investing more responsibly

SOCIAL ISSUES OF MOST CONCERN

Environment
34%

Social
41%

Governance
25%

Hongkongers prioritising environmental issues are most likely to:

Focus on ESG and sustainability factors when investing

Have an increasing interest in sustainable investments

Hongkongers prioritising social issues are more likely to divest from a company not operating responsibly.

Social equality and poverty are most pressing for investors in Hong Kong.

71% do not believe or are unsure if corporations are doing enough to solve social issues in Asia, and 69% for environmental issues.